Refund Policy

Advantage (Outfitter) has the following refund policy as it pertains to all deposits and fees paid to them by a client (Client) for any/all services provided or requested.

Deposit and Payment Schedule

To book a hunt a $1000.00 deposit is required. The deposit must be paid in full ($1000.00) at the signing of the contract for the desired hunt. (Hunts are booked by individual species, not as a combination hunt. Each individual hunt requires a $1000.00 hunt.)

On/by January 1st of the year the hunt will take place, it is required to submit payment to bring the remaining balance to 50%. The remaining 50% is due within four hours of arriving in camp for the said hunt. If the client fails to bring the balance to 50% on/by January 1st, they forfeit the deposit.

If a client is unsuccessful in drawing a tag that has been booked for agreed upon hunt, they will be notified in writing by Advantage Outfitters and they will be issued a full refund within 60 days of notification. If the client wishes, his deposit may be rolled over to the following year's hunting season if spots and dates are available.

Refunds (100% of payment made to date) will be given under the following conditions, if proper documentation is provided:

- Death of Client: A legal death certificate will need to be provided to Outfitter to provide a full refund. Included in the request for refund must be the information for the executor of the estate, or whom the refund is to be made.
- Military: Any active military who are unable to come on their hunt due to being deployed or activated. Clients must provide a copy of official military orders from the Armed Forces of the United States.
- Illness or Injury: In the case of a life-threatening illness or injury the client must provide a legal physician's statement citing illness or injury that resulted in inability to complete hunt.

Refund requests must be submitted in writing, with all proper documentation to be processed by Advantage Outfitters. Refunds will be issued by check within 60 days of receiving all proper documentation. Advantage Outfitters is not responsible for the loss of preference points or licenses and or associated fees if the hunt is not completed.

By signing I agree that I have read and understand the refund policy of Advantage Outfitters.
